

Global Values for Global Health

An International Conference

Monday, May 5, 2008

5:30 p.m., Welcoming Reception

Foster Anthropology Library, 230 Kroeber

Keynote, Followed by Panel

6:30 p.m., Gifford Room, 221 Kroeber

Tuesday, May 6, 2008

Plenary I, 9 a.m.-12 p.m.

Geballe Room, 220 Stephens Hall

Plenary II, 2-5 p.m.

223 Moses Hall

"AIDS Programs and Funding: Who Sets the Agendas?"

Michelle McMurry

Director of the Health, Biomedical Science and

Society Initiative, Aspen Institute

Discussants:

Joao Biehl, PhD;

Anthropology, Princeton University;

author of Will to Live: AIDS Therapies and the Politics of Survival

Didier Fassin, MD, PhD;

EHESS and Université Paris Nord;

former vice president of Médecins sans frontières;

author of When Bodies Remember: Politics of AIDS in South Africa

Vinh Kim Nguyen, MD, M.Sc., PhD;

University of Montreal, the Politics of AIDS in Côte d'Ivoire

Plenary I:

"Empathy, Solidarity and Moral Imagination: Possible and Actual Worlds"

Veena Das

Chair, Anthropology, Johns Hopkins University

Naomar De Almeida Filho

Chancellor, Federal University of Bahia UFBA, Brazil

Anne M. Lovell

Research Scientist, CDRP, Paris

Brackette Williams

Senior Justice Advocate, Open Society Institute

Discussant: Loic Wacquant, Sociology and Stefania Pandolfo, Anthropology, UCB

Plenary II:

"Less Death for the Many:
Triage, Solidarity, and Humanitarianism"

Joao Biehl

Didier Fassin

Vinh Kim Nguyen

Discussants: Laurence Cohen and Nancy Scheper-Hughes, Anthropology, UCB

*Town Hall Discussion Led by Professors Charles Briggs, Cori Hayden,
Aihwa Ong and Laura Nader*

Sponsored by the Institute of International Studies,
Medical Anthropology Program (Chancellor's Chair),
Department of Anthropology, Townsend Center for the Humanities, and the Science, Technology and Society Center